Passages Program Schedule for 2012

The Power of Story I

February 17-19, 2012, 9a.m. ó 5p.m. The Little House, Tucson, Arizona
Limited to 10 participants Cost: $650

Please join Ann Rainey and experience the gifts available to you through the process of Reconstruction. This three day (small group) workshop safely allows you, with other group members, to explore what is keeping you stuck in your life. This program will help you understand yourself and your struggles at a deeper level through expression of self and your generational story.

Breaking the Self Sabotage Cycle

April 20-22, 2012, 9a.m. ó 5p.m. The Little House, Tucson, Arizona
Limited to 10 participants Cost: $650

True recovery from trauma, behavioral/process and chemical addictions is challenging. In this workshop your facilitator, Libby Timmons, combines recovery tools, psychodrama, experimental therapy and psycho-education to assist you in achieving a deeper level of physical and emotional recovery.

"A Loss Too Great: Healing a Devastating Grief "

July 13-15, 2012, 9a.m. ó 5p.m. The Little House, Tucson, Arizona
Limited to 10 participants Cost: $650

Our group leader for this program, Joan Furman, has long been recognized for her amazing ability to support healing for individuals recovering from life's traumas and losses. Whether it is tragic life events or the death(s) of significant individuals in your life, this workshop will support you in your grieving and healing process.

The Power of Story II

September 28-30, 2012, 9a.m. ó 5p.m. The Little House, Tucson, Arizona
Limited to 10 participants Cost: $650

Ann Rainey once again shows us the power of the reconstruction process. This deeper level work is available to individuals who may or may not have attended the Power of Story I this year. If you are looking to make long lasting change in your life, this workshop is for you. Move Beyond Stuck!
